

Benjamin Campa

Bolingbrook, IL (708) 770 3066

Bencampa77@gmail.com

Mission Statement:

Motivated first-generation college student and proud Mexican-American majoring in Computer Science with a minor in Cybersecurity. Passionate about mentorship, community service, and leadership development. I am eager to use technology and education as tools for empowerment while exploring business to expand my impact.

Skills:

Languages: Fluent in English and Spanish |
Conversational Italian (Beginner)

Technical Skills: Java, Python, Linux, GitHub

Characteristics: Growth Mindset, Adaptable, Grit

Work Experience:

Beggars Pizza - Bolingbrook IL

January 2024 - Present

Cook

- Demonstrate strong multitasking and time management skills by maintaining productivity under tight time constraints.
- Work collaboratively with kitchen staff to fulfill high-volume orders during peak hours while maintaining accuracy and quality

Lewis Flyer Guide - Lewis University

Romeoville, IL

August 2024 - Present

First Year Guide

- Provided peer support to new students, ensuring a smooth transition into college.
- Sharpened time management and accountability by meeting deadlines for scheduled check-ins with assigned students.

Tech Connection - Bartlett

December 2024 - Present

CoFounder

- Repaired and troubleshooted computer issues, strengthening hands-on technical and problem-solving skills.
 - Gained real-world experience in tech support, product education, and client-facing communication within an academic setting.
-

Education:

Lewis University | Romeoville, IL

Bachelor of Science in Computer Science

Minor: Cybersecurity

Expected Graduation: [May 2027]